

Aloha, my name is Kekoa. I am a koa, an endemic Hawaiian tree. That means I am found in Hawaii! and nowhere else in the world! I am the warrior and protector of the forest. I grow tall to provide shade for other trees and shrubs. I also help to create a special fertilizer in the soil to help other plants to grow. 'Akiapola'au and other forest birds are often seen on my branches searching for insects to eat.

Koa

