

Sun

Aloha, my name is Kolā. I am the sun. My rays travel millions of miles to brighten and warm your home, Earth. Plants use my rays to make food so they can grow. My rays also heat the air around you, which creates wind. When I heat water, it evaporates into clouds as part of it's flow. I am the center of these cycles, as well as our solar system.

