

Wind

Aloha, my name is Makani. I am the wind. Whether I howl or whisper, I am always moving. I help carry seeds across the islands and across the globe. I move the clouds and the rain, and bring ocean swells. Native Hawaiians have many names for all my different forms and faces.

